EMILY'S SUGGESTIONS

---

ALMA ROSA BRUT ROSE 'EL JABALI' 2013 90

We hope that this rare sparkling wine from Alma Rosa will become part of their regular production. This single vinyard, vintage sparkling wine from the Santa Rita Hills showcases how diverse winemaking is in the Santa Ynez Valley. This particular wine is of beautiful quality with soft perlage and delicate strawberry and rose petal notes.

BRUNO GIACOSA NEBBIOLO D'ALBA 2012 19/76

One of Piedmont's iconic winemakers, Bruno Giacosa is a traditionalist when it comes to making his famous Barolo and Barbaresco. But this humble Nebbiolo d'Alba still displays the marks of a master. The soft fruit and elegant structure will make it a perfect pairing for the Beet Ricotta Gnocchi, Wild Mushroom Pappardelle, or the Kurobuta Pork Chop.

CHEF LUCA'S PICK

REFUGIO RANCH SAUVIGNON BLANC/SEMILLON

SANTA YNEZ 2013 35

The original Refugio Ranch- then named Rancho Nuestra Senora del Refugio- was settled by the Spanish in in the 18th century. But it was relatively recently that it was discovered that the Santa Ynez River- that snakes through this beautiful property- provided soils and climate suitable for planting vineyards. This wine is is dominated by Sauvignon Blanc- playing on the grapefruit character of the varietal and turning towards tropical. The Semillon, in turn, rounds out the wine adding a hint of beeswax.
